Based on the request received from Dr. V. Rhymend Uthariaraj, Professor and Director, Ramanujan Computing Centre and professor in-charge M.E (SEOR) to rename the M.E System Engineering and Operations research course as M.E Computer Science and Engineering with specialization in Operations Research, the committee discussed and came up with the following recommendations and suggestions.
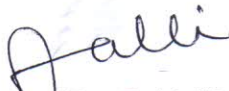

As the proposal will benefit the students and will help them to apply for both academic and industrial job opportunities, considering the fact that curriculum comprises 70% of subject from Computer Science domain, committee recommends to rename the course.
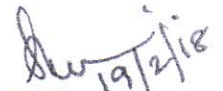

Hence, the committee recommends to rename the course M.E System Engineering and Operations research as M.E Computer Science and Engineering with specialization in Operations Research.
